About Us

The University of Liverpool is one of the founding members of the prestigious Russell Group with a worldwide reputation for excellence, thanks to our academics who are leading in ground breaking teaching and research placing us in the top 1% of universities worldwide for internationally recognised research.

We are based in the North West of the UK in vibrant Liverpool, a wonderful city known globally for sport, music, architecture and culture. The University itself has global connections and pioneering partnerships including our innovative joint venture Xi'an Jiaotong-Liverpool University (XJTLU) in China and study abroad exchange partnerships with over 100 institutions.

Consistently ranked in the top 150 universities in the world by QS, Times Higher Education and ARWU, the University of Liverpool is particularly renowned for our teaching and research in Business, Law, Engineering and Architecture amongst others. Previous students joining us from the USA have studied Archaeology, Communication and Media, English and Business.

Students will be part of our large international cohort – 8,000 of our 33,000 students join us from overseas. The Guild of Students has over 200 student societies to join including athletics clubs such as our very own American Football team! An array of award winning student services support students throughout their studies; from our dedicated international advice and guidance team to the Careers Service, who help students on the next steps of their journey.
